

JointManager – Cookie Notice

08/06/2026

Purpose & Scope

This website uses cookies and similar technologies to ensure the site functions correctly, to maintain secure user sessions, and to support essential authentication processes. Because some of these cookies are strictly necessary for the operation of our services, they do not require your consent. However, Ovarro believes in transparency, so this notice explains what these cookies do, why we use them, and how long they remain active.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They help websites function, improve security, and enable features such as logging in, maintaining sessions, and navigating between pages.

Under national and international data protection legislation, we may store strictly necessary cookies without your consent. All other cookies require your permission. In this case, no optional or non-essential cookies are in use.

Strictly Necessary Cookies We Use

These cookies are required for the website and its connected platforms to function. They enable secure login, session continuity, and load balancing. Without them, the site cannot operate properly.

.ASPXAUTH

How We Use Your Data

These cookies do not track your browsing behaviour across other websites or store personal information. They exist solely to:

- Keep you securely logged in,
- Maintain platform functionality,
- Ensure stable performance,
- Route your requests correctly across servers.

Managing Cookies

Because these cookies are strictly necessary for the website to function, they cannot be disabled through our cookie settings. You may disable cookies through your browser settings, but doing so may prevent the site from working correctly, including login and navigation features.

Contact Us

If you have questions about how we use cookies or how your data is processed under data protection legislation, you can contact our Data Protection Committee at: GDPR@ovarro.com.
